

Manage Lookup Tables

Last Modified on 02/19/2019 4:46 am EST

You can view, add, edit, delete, and export your lookup tables from the Administration console.

A lookup table is a query type that you connect to a data model when defining a Form. They are tables with lookup values that you can use in various controls, such as combo boxes, option groups, and grids.