Time Picker Control Overview

The Time Picker control is a standard ASP.NET control. It is comprised of a Date Input control and a Time View control.

Time

Time Picker Control Features

Feature	Description
Overview	General information about the Time Picker control. For more information, click here.
Customize Embedded Controls	Customize embedded controls that make up the Time Picker control. For more information, click here.
Sharable Popup Control	Share a Time View control to limit the number of time pickers in a form. Having too many time pickers in a form can negatively affect performance. For more information, click here.
Customize Skins	Customize the look and feel to the Time Picker. For more information, click here.
Client-side Object Model	Extend the Time Picker control functionality by using the client-side API. For more information, click here.