Masked Textbox Control Overview

The Masked Textbox control is a standard ASP.NET control.

Masked Textbox Control Features

Feature	Description
Overview	General information about the Masked Textbox control. For more information, click here.
Masks	Mask strings control the text the user can enter. For more information, click here.
Validation	Validate user input. For more information, click here.
Context Menu	A context menu with built-in commands displays when users right-click the control. For more information, click here.
Getting and Settings Values	Server-side properties to get or set the control value. For more information, click here.
Client-side Object Model	Extend the Masked Textbox control functionality by using the client-side API. For more information, click here.