Task Activity Overview

Tasks are assigned to end users. The Task Activity consists of two components:

- Form
- Message

You can define a task as One-Click Action, which enables end users to complete the task by clicking a link in the notification email. For more information, see Configure One-Click Action for a Task.