

Consume a REST Service that Has OAuth2 Authentication

Last Modified on 07/18/2019 10:51 am EDT

To consume a REST service that has OAuth2 authentication, first, you write a message handler. Then, you use the message handler in an HTTP Consumer Activity.

Sample

In this sample, we provide implementation of the OAuth HTTP consumer extension (which connects to Twitter). We also include a sample workflow.

- OAuth HTTP Consumer Extension
- Sample Workflow